Scheduling:

Weddings and receptions may be scheduled only on weekends during the academic calendar, and the University will book no more than two (2) weddings per month. During University breaks, weddings and receptions may be held any day of the week. No weddings may be held during official University holidays or Holy days of the Christian faith. Weddings may not be scheduled before 10 am, and they must end by 11 pm.

*If desired, tuning will be arranged by the Office of Events and Conferences for an additional fee. Regular tuning is handled by our School of Fine Arts.

All organ use is subject to the approval by HBU’s School of Music.
Booking:

Reservations can be made through the Office of University Events & Conferences. Call 281-649-3047 or email weddings@hbu.edu. We would like the opportunity to talk with you prior to the reservation to ensure our facilities will meet your needs. After contacting the office, you will be given a one (1) hour tour of the chapel and reception areas.

Wedding and reception reservations are taken on a first come, first served basis, and are only for University affiliates - faculty, staff, students, alumni, and Trustees of HBU or their children. (Special considerations will be reviewed by the Vice President of University Relations, Vice President of Financial Affairs, and the Associate Vice President of University Relations when written consideration is submitted to the Office of University Events & Conferences.)

Deposits must be remitted to secure your date and time on the University’s master calendar.

Fees are subject to change, but reservations made with a deposit can hold a price.

Deposits are required to make reservations, and they will be used as a Security Deposit. If there is no damage, the deposit will be returned within 30 days following the date of the event. If there is damage, the amount of repairs, equipment damage, and excessive maintenance / clean-up will be deducted. Deposits can be refunded up to 90 days prior to the event.

General Policies:

- The presiding official at the wedding must be a minister within the Christian faith or a Justice of the Peace. The bride and groom are responsible for obtaining this individual and any obligations required.
- You may contact the HBU School of Fine Arts to see availability of faculty and students to perform at the wedding – 281-649-3338. Musicians are not included in the wedding packages; fees will need to be paid to the individual performing the service.
- Floral arrangements can only be in the Belin Chapel during the four hours the day of the wedding.
- No lighted candles are allowed on the end of the rows.
- Spring loaded / drip free candles are required for candelabras or unity candles.
- Plastic protections must be placed below candles and plants.
- Flowers and bows may be hung from plastic pew hangers available at florists.
- Storage is not available; decorations must be removed upon departure.
- Photographer / videographer: Please notify your photographer that no flash photography is allowed during the ceremony. Also, your videographer must film from the back or side of the Chapel.
- Rice, sparklers, silly string and confetti are not permitted. Live flower petals are not allowed inside McNair Hall but may be used outside.
- Audio in McNair Hall: No DJ may patch into the house sound system in McNair Hall. If you desire to use the house sound system for other reasons, the same University trained sound technician will need to be retained for an additional fee.
- DJ: Please remember that booking the University for your event means that you will uphold the vision, mission, and purpose of the University and song selections need to be in alignment. Any member of the Events Team – Police, Catering or Facility Contact can ask your wedding coordinator or DJ to change inappropriate songs.
POLICY AGREEMENT
All events held at the University must be in alignment with the Christian vision, mission and purpose of the University. I have read the Morris Center Policy above, and I agree to abide by these guidelines. I understand that if I violate these rules and regulations, I may forfeit either part or all of my deposit.
